3) 2024 Study Teams

Members committed to participating on study teams for 2024:

- A. Transit and Crossings: This team will conduct an analysis of pedestrian and bicyclist crashes near transit stops and routes.
- B. Human Factors and Transportation Safety: The team will narrow the focus of work begun in 2023 to develop actionable recommendations.
- C. Land Use and multimodal advocacy: The team will review recent developments in the Growth Management Act, the Transportation Impact Analysis, and the VMT Reduction Report to identify recommendations to enhance the regulatory tool of MTIA.

4) Update to 2024 Target Zero, Shelly Baldwin

- Slides available on WTSC website

5) Feedback on ATSC process and results

- Members find speakers, study teams, the opportunity to learn, the congenial and collaborative nature of the group, facilitation, schedule, and administration to be working well.
- The value of ATSC to members is primarily the learning about active transportation safety issues and the opportunity to make change for walker/roller safety.
- Members have many suggestions for improvement and opportunities for future work, including but not limited to: more expert speakers, interacting with other agencies, deep dives into topics.
